Testifying Before Congress

Bill LaForge is an attorney, Washington office managing shareholder and government relations practice group leader with the Winstead law firm. He specializes in federal government relations, and represents businesses and other organizations with public policy interests before the United States Congress and federal executive branch agencies. For more than 30 years, Mr. LaForge has been involved with the public policy arena at local, state, and federal levels. Mr. LaForge will discuss his book, Testifying Before Congress: A Practical Guide to Preparing and Delivering Testimony before Congress and Congressional Hearings for Agencies, Associations, Corporations, Military, NGOs, and State and Local Officials. The book can serve as a guide through the unique maze of the Congressional hearings process for virtually any witness or organization, including especially federal departments and agencies.
